

GEORGE WASHINGTON INN

GEORGE WASHINGTON INN PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – DECEMBER 9, 2011

Enjoy A Free Train Ride At George Washington Inn This Christmas Season

A newly formed club of Olympic Peninsula train enthusiasts, the George Washington Live Steamers, will offer free train rides on the grounds of George Washington Inn and Estate from 10 AM until 4 PM on Saturday, December 17, 2011. A temporary 7 ½ inch narrow gauge railroad will be set up, and a live train with railroad cars (for limited passenger seating) will be running all day, compliments of local volunteers, Northwest Railroad Foundry and Supply and Dick Peterson of Port Angeles, WA.

The inn's farm, Washington Lavender, will provide delicious hot chocolate and coffee in the farm store. You can make plans to enjoy some Christmas shopping in the store as well. Donations for the development of the 1st live steam train club on the Olympic Peninsula will be appreciated.

Related websites with more information are as follows:

www.GWSteamers.org

www.WashingtonLavender.com

www.GeorgeWashingtonInn.com